

I object to Sinclair Media's use of its broadcast license to engage in obviously propagandistic and partisan special programming.

FCC Equal Access regulations should prevent this flagrant abuse. If they do NOT, then they are obviously inadequate, and will not protect the American electorate from manipulation by incumbent administrations and partisan license-holding corporations.

Douglas McVicar.